[New York, NY] – Gambit NYC is pleased to present ÍMPETUD, a new solo exhibition by Argentinean artist Isadora Capraro. Continuing her investigations into spirituality, yoga practice, and surrender — ÍMPETUD symbolizes the charged spiritual inertia latent within each human being.

Capraro's paintings depict Yoga practice as allegory for spiritual growth and surrender. Feminine figures charged with spiritual poise appear suspended between gestures, their stillness grasping ambient ambiguous energy. Through layered color, texture, and symbolism, Capraro creates paintings as meditative spaces where vulnerability and strength coexist, inviting viewers into a state of contemplation that mirrors the meditative discipline of yoga itself.

Utilizing figuration as symbolic foil, Capraro's work depicts inner courage to trust intuition, to release control, and to move forward with purpose. Capraro channels this impulse through figures immersed in soft, earth-toned environments that feel grounded and transcendent, echoing the breath and rhythm of yoga practice.

Capraro's compositions radiate with this quiet urgency, revealing the moment of pause before movement. Capraro intends to capture a quintessential tenet of yoga: comfort in discomfort, embracing presence and contemplation of hesitation. The exhibition offers a visual meditation on inner force, surrender, and the beauty of becoming—an embodiment of impetus as both energy and grace.

ÍMPETUD is on view October 30th through December 4th.

Opening Reception October 30th at 1155 6th Avenue.

Curated by Lautaro Cuttica.
